SERVICES HELD TODAY

FUNERAL OF COL. MILLER THIS AFTERNOON.

Escorted by Troop of Cavalry, the Remains Taken to Railway Station-Interment at Utica.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Col. Alexander Macomb Miller, Corps of Engineers, at 2 o'clock this afternoon at his late residence, No. 2123 R street. As stated in yesterday's Star, Col. Miller died suddenly from heart disease on the steamer Potomac of the Weems line near Irvington, Va., Wednesday afternoon. Col. Miller has just finished an inspection of certain government works on the Rappahannock river, and was on his way back to this city when he was stricken down. Mr. F. C. Warman, assistant engineer, was with him at the time, and, by direction of the War Department, brought his remains to this city. At Baltimore the body was examined by the city physician, and he gave a certificate of death from angina pectoris

Date of Services Changed.

Two of the sons of Col. Miller, Lieut. William S. Miller of the navy and Mr. Rutgers Miller of New York, arrived here last evening, and after conferring with their mother and sister, Mrs. Otten of Pittsburg, decided to have the funeral services over the body this afternoon instead of waiting until tomorrow, as had been sug-Owing to their inability to make gested. Owing to their inability to make public announcement of the change in the time of the funeral the attendance at the services this afternoon was much smaller than it otherwise would have been, being confined almost entirely to intimate friends and officers of the army stationed at the War Department. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Smith of St. Margaret's Church.

At their close the casket, draped in the American flag and covered with flowers, was placed on an army caisson and escorted by a troop of the 15th Cavalry, from Fort Myer, headed by the band of that regiment playing dirges, to the railroad station, whence the remains were taken to Utica, N. Y., for interment.

The honorary pallbearers were: Gen. Alexander Mackenzie, chief of engineers; Gen. G. B. Davis, judge advocate general; Col. John Biddle. Engineer Commissioner of the District: Maj. F. V. Abbot, Maj. H. F. Hodges and Capt. C. W. Kutz of the office of chief of engineers, Mr. Ogden and Mr. Mechlin. Eight non-commissioned officers from the engineer post at Washington barracks acted as body bearers. It nad been intended that the battalion of engineers stationed at Washington barrack should form part of the funeral escort, but hat organization, which marched from Manassas to this city, arrived here too late

Interment at Utica. The interment of the remains will be made at Utica tomorrow afternoon. The funeral party consisted of the two sons and a few intimate friends. Owing to the very delicate state of the health of Mrs. Miller, she was unable to make the journey. Col. Miller's eldest son, Capt. A. M. Miller, jr., of the 9th Cavalry, stationed at Fort Walla Walla, Wash., was unable to reach the city in time to attend the funeral, Until a permanent detail is made, Capt. William P. Wooten, Corps of Engineers, who was Col. Miller's chief assistant, will have temporary charge of the affairs of the office vacated by the death of Col. Miller, including the Washington aqueduct and the

WHAT'S THE USE TO KEEP A "COFFEE COMPLEXION."

A lady says: "Postum has helped my complexion so much that my friends say I am growing young again. My complexion used to be coffee colored. muddy and yellow, but it is now clear and rosy as when I was a girl. I was induced to try Postum by a friend who had suffered just as I had suffered from terrible indigestion, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells.

"After I had used Postum a week I was so much better that I was afraid it would not last. But now two years have passed and I am a well woman. I owe it all to leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place.

"I had drank coffee all my life. I suspecte that it was the cause of my trouble, but it was not until I actually quit coffee and started to try Postum that I became certain; then all my troubles ceased and I am now well and strong again." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek,

He was admitted to the bar and was active in the practice of his profession. In 1890 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Cincinnati. No Typhoid Fever at Harper's Ferry.

To the Editor of The Evening Star: It is really amusing to see the way people who know little or nothing about the matter and whose minds might run on greater things try and down the interesting and plucky little town of Harper's Ferry, which is the delight and resort of so many weary workers from Washington. One cannot help wondering whether this absurd rumor of an epidemic of typhoid fever is being spread abroad by a rival health resort or a company interested in a new railroad track. strange that Harper's Ferry should have been chosen as the camp of the Washington troops, still stranger that there should not have been one case during the whole sojourn of the soldiers in these

This has been an exceptional year for Harrer's Ferry, both as regards the large number of visitors and the very few and rare cases of sickness. B. B. RANSON, M. D. EUGENE SHUGART, Mayor.
